Duke University Commencement ~ 2012

Sunday, the Thirteenth of May, Two Thousand and Twelve
ten o’clock in the morning ~ Wallace Wade Stadium
Notes on Academic Dress

Academic dress had its origin in the Middle Ages. When the European universities were taking form in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries, scholars were also clerics, and they adopted robes similar to those of their monastic orders. Caps were a necessity in drafty buildings, and copes or capes with hoods attached were needed for warmth. As the control of universities gradually passed from the church, academic costume began to take on brighter hues and to employ varied patterns in cut and color of gown and type of headdress.

The use of academic costume in the United States has been continuous since Colonial times, but a clear protocol did not emerge until an intercollegiate commission in 1893 recommended a uniform code. In this country, the design of a gown varies with the degree held. The bachelor’s gown is relatively simple with long pointed sleeves as its distinguishing mark. The gown for the master’s degree has an oblong sleeve with the rear part cut square and the front part with a cutaway arc. The most elaborate academic costume is the doctoral gown with velvet panels down the front and three bars of the same material across the sleeves. The velvet is usually black, but it may be a color designating the field of study to which the degree pertains. The gown itself, usually black like those of the lower degrees, may be of a color distinctive of a particular university.

The hood bears a still larger symbolic burden: the width of its velvet trimming designates the level of the degree; the color heralds the major field of study; and the lining identifies the institution that granted the degree. Duke University is symbolized by a lining of Duke blue with a white chevron.

The cap, originally round, is usually a square mortarboard and is the same for all degrees. The standard tassel for the cap is black, but the cap worn with the doctoral robe may have a gold tassel. The Duke doctoral gown is in the authentic Duke blue. The Duke University shield, embroidered in blue on white, is applied to each front panel. With this gown there may be worn a black velvet, four-pointed, soft tam with a square top and a gold metallic bullion tassel.

Significance of Colors
Colors indicating fields of study and colors identifying some of the universities represented by members of the faculties of the University are:

- Arts, Letters, Humanities: white
- Business Administration: drab
- Dentistry: lavender
- Divinity, Theology: scarlet
- Economics: copper
- Education: light blue
- Engineering: orange
- Fine Arts: brown
- Forestry: russet
- Law: purple
- Medicine: green
- Music: pink
- Nursing: apricot
- Philosophy: dark blue
- Physical Therapy: teal
- Public Health: salmon
- Science: golden yellow

Mace and Chain of Office

Again at commencement, ceremonial use is made of two important insignia given to Duke University in memory of Benjamin N. Duke. Both the mace and chain of office are the gifts of anonymous donors and of the Mary Duke Biddle Foundation. They were designed and executed by Professor Kurt J. Matzdorf of New Paltz, New York, and were dedicated and first used at the inaugural ceremonies of President Sanford in 1970.

The Mace, the symbol of authority of the University, is made of sterling silver throughout. It is thirty-seven inches long and weighs about eight pounds. At the lower end of the hammered shaft is a gilt (gold-plated) pine cone. The upper end of the shaft displays the inscription Universitas Dukiana 1838. This inscription is surmounted by a short, hammered neck followed by the head which has eight flutings alternating with eight gilt ribs. Above the head of the mace, a band carries the motto of Duke University: Eruditio et Religio. The upper end of the mace is a crown of gilt laurel leaves which carries the seal of Duke University surrounded by the three symbols of the Trinity to indicate that Duke University emerged from Trinity College.

The Chain of Office of the President of Duke University is four feet long and is also made of sterling silver throughout. The main part consists of nine silver pine cones alternating with ten gilt clusters of three laurel leaves each. In the front hangs the gilt medallion with the official seal of Duke University surrounded by the three symbols of the Trinity to indicate that Duke University emerged from Trinity College.

In Adversis Idem set in a sterling wreath of laurel leaves and bearing the inscription Duke.

Alma Mater

Monica Sophia Villar
Candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Arts

The audience stands for the Alma Mater and remains standing until the platform party and the faculty leave the Stadium.

Dear Old Duke, thy name we sing.       And though on life’s broad sea
To thee our voices raise, we’ll raise,    Our fates may far us bear,
To thee our anthems ring               We’ll ever turn to thee
in everlasting praise.                 Our Alma Mater dear.

“... In Beauty Bearing the Crown Imperial...”
Honorary Degree Recipient

James L. Barksdale

DOCTOR OF LAWS

Faculty Sponsor – Kimberly Jenkens
Trustee Sponsor – Marguerite W. Kondrake

James Barksdale is president and chairman of Barksdale Management Corp., a philanthropic investment management company, and managing partner of The Barksdale Group, a venture capital firm, positions he has held since April 1999. These roles are the latest in a distinguished career of leadership in corporate America: he worked as COO of Federal Express, CEO of AT&T Wireless Services, and then as president and CEO of Netscape Communications Corporation until the company merged with America Online in 1999. Mr. Barksdale earned his undergraduate degree in business administration from the University of Mississippi.

Mr. Barksdale has made his philanthropic impact in his home state of Mississippi. A gift from the Barksdale Foundation established the Barksdale Honors College at the University of Mississippi in 1997, and in 2000, the Foundation granted $100 million to the State of Mississippi to support literacy programs, in partnership with the Mississippi Department of Education and the state’s seven public university schools of education. As The New York Times reported, the gift was meant to “redress the persistent failure of government to overcome the poverty and racial inequity that have led to decades of social and economic stagnation in Mississippi.”

Mr. Barksdale served as chairman of Mississippi’s Governor’s Commission on Recovery, Rebuilding, and Renewal after Hurricane Katrina. In January 2012, Governor Phil Bryant appointed him as interim executive director of the Mississippi Development Authority (MDA), the state’s lead economic development agency. He has served on the boards of AOL Time Warner, Federal Express, the Mayo Foundation, and Sun Microsystems. Last year, Mr. Barksdale was honored with the 2011 Mississippi Medal of Service award.
Honorary Degree Recipient

Nancy Goodman Brinker
Doctor of Humane Letters

Faculty Sponsor – Michael Kastan
Trustee Sponsor – Laurene M. Sperling

A leader of the global breast-cancer awareness movement, Nancy Brinker is founder and CEO of Susan G. Komen for the Cure. Named for her sister, who died of breast cancer, and founded in 1982, the organization is now the world’s largest grassroots network of breast-cancer survivors and activists; it sees its mission as fighting to save lives and to energize science to work toward a cure. Komen for the Cure has invested almost $2 billion toward research, community health, advocacy, and global programs that serve hundreds of thousands of women in more than fifty countries.

Ambassador Brinker, who graduated from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, serves as the World Health Organization’s Goodwill Ambassador for Cancer Control. She has written four books, including the bestselling Promise Me, about her organization’s growth from a promise made to her sister to the global effort of today.

Among other distinctions, she has been named one of Time magazine’s “100 Most Influential People,” one of Ladies Home Journal’s “100 Most Important Women of the 20th Century,” and one of Biography magazine’s “25 Most Powerful Women in America.” She has received a number of awards, including the Mary Woodard Lasker Award for Public Service.

Ambassador Brinker, herself a breast-cancer survivor, was U.S. ambassador to Hungary from 2001 to 2003 and U.S. chief of protocol under George W. Bush from 2007 to 2009. In 2009, President Barack Obama named her a recipient of the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation’s highest civilian honor, for her work to end breast cancer.
Emmylou Harris

DOCTOR OF ARTS

Faculty Sponsor – Thomas Rankin
Trustee Sponsor – Michael Marsicano

Emmylou Harris has been a major contributor to numerous forms of musical expression for nearly four decades, including country, rock, bluegrass, folk, and Americana. Billboard has called her “a truly venturesome, genre-transcending pathfinder,” and her many honors include twelve Grammy Awards. She was inducted into the Grand Ole Opry in 1992, elected to the Country Music Hall of Fame in 2008, and inducted into the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2009. In September, along with Billy Sherrill, Ricky Skaggs and Dwight Yoakam, Emmylou Harris will receive the Cliffie Stone Pioneer Award from the Academy of Country Music.

Ms. Harris was born in Alabama and grew up in Virginia, where she was the valedictorian of her high school. She began to study music seriously while attending the University of North Carolina at Greensboro on a drama scholarship. She played in college with a folk duo, but she left to pursue her musical aspirations in New York. Her talent flourished in her personal and musical partnership with Gram Parsons, who died tragically in 1973 at the age of 26. Since then, along with her own successes, she has been sought out for collaborations by artists such as Bob Dylan, Linda Ronstadt, John Denver, The Band, Elvis Costello, and Dolly Parton.

A dedicated social campaigner, Ms. Harris has been a vocal opponent of landmines. She is also an active member of PETA and has founded an animal shelter in Nashville.

Emmylou Harris wrote most of the songs on her critically acclaimed album “Hard Bargain,” released last year, and is touring this summer.
Honorary Degree Recipient

Darryl Eugene Hunt
Doctor of Humane Letters

Faculty Sponsor – James Coleman
Trustee Sponsor – Peter J. Kahn

Darryl Hunt served almost nineteen years in prison and nearly received the death penalty after being accused and twice convicted of the 1984 rape and murder of newspaper copy editor Deborah Sykes in Winston-Salem. New DNA evidence led to Mr. Hunt’s exoneration in 2004 and to another suspect’s confessing to the crime.

Today Mr. Hunt is active in the Darryl Hunt Project for Freedom and Justice, a nonprofit organization dedicated to “educating the public about flaws in the criminal justice system, advocating for those wrongfully incarcerated as a result of those flaws, and providing resources and support for those trying to rebuild their lives.” He is also active with the Innocence Project.

While in prison, Mr. Hunt earned his G.E.D. and took college courses; while out on bond and awaiting a second trial in 1990, he enrolled at Winston-Salem State University. Since his release, Mr. Hunt has spoken to more than 200 conferences, schools, film festivals, and religious groups to spread a message of reform and compassion. He has played a pivotal role in the statewide effort to pass a Death Penalty Moratorium Bill, and has appeared before a U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee hearing on the death-penalty appeals process.

Mr. Hunt is a frequent speaker at Duke Law School’s week-long orientation program and has worked with law students enrolled in the Wrongful Convictions Clinic, a seminar on the criminal justice system in which students investigate claims of actual innocence and wrongful conviction by North Carolina prisoners. The Trials of Darryl Hunt, a documentary, was a Sundance Film Festival selection in 2006.
Robert Coleman Richardson

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

Faculty Sponsor – J. Horst Meyer
Trustee Sponsor – David M. Rubenstein

Robert Richardson is the Floyd Newman Professor of Physics at Cornell University. Since arriving at Cornell in 1966, he has served as director of Cornell’s Laboratory of Atomic and Solid State Physics, senior vice provost for research, senior science advisor to the president and provost, and founding director of the Kavli Institute at Cornell for Nanoscale Science. His thirty years of teaching college physics culminated in his coauthoring the text College Physics.

In 1996, he shared the Nobel Prize in Physics for the 1972 discovery of the property of superfluidity in helium-3 atoms. He has also focused on using Nuclear Magnetic Resonance to study the quantum properties of liquids and solids at extremely low temperatures.

Dr. Richardson has been a member of the National Science Board, the governing board of the National Science Foundation. He also has served on the board of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and been a member of the National Research Council Committee on Prospering in the Global Economy of the 21st Century. He is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Physical Society, and the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. His memberships include the National Academy of Sciences and the American Philosophical Society.

Dr. Richardson earned his Ph.D. at Duke in 1966 under the direction of physics professor emeritus Horst Meyer. He attended Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University for his bachelor’s and master’s degrees. He was a member of the Duke Board of Trustees from 1997 to 2007 and served on the board’s Executive Committee from 2002 to 2007.
Honorary Degree Recipient

Fareed Zakaria
Doctor of Humane Letters

Faculty Sponsor – Peter Feaver
Trustee Sponsor – David Gergen

Since 2008, Fareed Zakaria has been host of CNN’s Fareed Zakaria GPS, an international and domestic-affairs program viewed worldwide. He is also editor at large of Time magazine, a Washington Post columnist, and a best-selling author. From 1992 to 2010, he was managing editor of Foreign Affairs, a journal of international politics and economics. During this period, he also worked as an analyst for ABC News, a columnist for Newsweek, and an editor of Newsweek International.

In the course of his career, Dr. Zakaria has interviewed many of the world’s most influential leaders, including President Barack Obama, Chinese Premier Wen Jiabao, British Prime Minister David Cameron, and the Dalai Lama. He was described in 1999 by Esquire magazine as “the most influential foreign-policy advisor of his generation.” In 2010, Foreign Policy named him one of the top 100 global thinkers.

Dr. Zakaria’s most recent book, The Post-American World, was called “relentlessly intelligent” in a New York Times review, and “a powerful guide” to facing global challenges by The Economist. He is also the author of The Future of Freedom. His columns have received many awards, including a 2010 National Magazine Award; he is also well-known for his October 2001 Newsweek cover story, “Why They Hate Us.”

Dr. Zakaria earned his undergraduate degree from Yale University, where he has served as a trustee, and his Ph.D. in 1993 from Harvard University.

The Traditions of Commencement

Duke University traces its origin to 1838 when Brown's Schoolhouse, a one-room log subscription school, expanded to Union Institute upon the uniting of Methodist and Quaker families. Commencement exercises date from 1852 when action of the North Carolina General Assembly authorized the institution to grant degrees. Throughout the years commencement exercises have varied in scope, sometimes offering as much as a week of celebration to the graduates, their families and citizens of rural Randolph County, North Carolina, the site of the predecessor institutions to Duke University. Notable ceremonies in the nineteenth century included those of 1859 when President Braxton Craven presented diplomas reflecting a name change to Trinity College, of 1877 when the first earned M.A. degrees were awarded, and of 1878 when three sisters, Mary, Persis, and Theresa Giles earned degrees, becoming the first women graduates of the College.

The leadership of President John F. Crowell, the donation of land by Julian S. Carr, and the financial assistance of Washington Duke made possible the relocation of Trinity College to Durham in 1892. Within a decade, Trinity College established a reputation for excellence. Commencement ceremonies became more formal under the direction of a College Marshal. Caps and gowns appeared, and after 1902, students received Latin honors in recognition of academic achievement. With appropriate ceremony, the college paid homage to Washington Duke, who had died in 1905, with the unveiling of his statue at the commencement of 1908.

From 1910 to 1924, President William Preston Few presided over the development of a particularly strong liberal arts college, and from 1924 until his death in 1940, he directed the successful transition to a complex research university. In December 1924, long-range planning and a lifetime of family philanthropy culminated in the public announcement of a grand design to aid higher education, hospitals, orphanages, and the Methodist Church in North and South Carolina. Acknowledging the unique opportunity for a new identity presented by acceptance of the terms of the indenture of the Duke Endowment, the Board of Trustees of Trinity College enthusiastically agreed toorganize a new institution around Trinity College. The enlarged institution was to be known as Duke University in honor of Washington Duke, benefactor and father of Mary, James Buchanan, and Benjamin Newton, all friends of the college in their own way.

Based upon the solid foundation of Trinity College, the University grew spectacularly. The curriculum expanded and succeeding commencement programs noted new degrees: B.D. and M.Ed. in 1927, Ph.D. in 1928, and LL.B. in 1929. M.D. joined the list in 1932, and B.S. in Engineering in 1933, B.S. in Nursing in 1936, and Master of Forestry in 1939. In 1972 the degree of Master of Business Administration, the last curriculum recommended by James B. Duke, joined the list of degrees awarded by Duke University.

The location of the commencement exercises themselves reflects the changing nature of the University. First held in Craven Memorial Auditorium on East Campus, they were moved to West Campus in 1931 and held successively in Page Auditorium and in the outdoor and indoor stadiums. Special ceremonies at commencement have included the laying of the cornerstone of the Gothic campus in 1928, the first use of the Chapel and the inaugural carillon and organ recitals in 1932, and the unveiling of the statue of James B. Duke in 1935. The exigencies of World War II required the awarding of degrees during the year in special ceremonies in a variety of locations.

President Terry Sanford pursued new ways to continue a single university-wide convocation of undergraduate, graduate and professional school students which would still maintain traditional exercises. In a unique format, baccalaureate services are offered three times, and the commencement exercises have now returned to an outdoor setting, first to Wallace Wade Stadium in 1974, to the East Campus quadrangle in 1980, and in 1984 back to the Stadium.

The Duke University Wind Symphony

The Duke University Wind Symphony, directed by Verena Mösenbichler-Bryant, is an ensemble of sixty undergraduate and graduate students from across the United States and around the world, and is open to all Duke students by audition. The ensemble has commissioned over twenty works, many of them entering the standard repertoire of wind bands throughout the world. The “Commencement Edition” of this weekend’s Wind Symphony is augmented by alumni and friends, including representatives from the 1950’s to the present.

The announcer for today’s Commencement ceremony is our own “Voice of Duke” Bob Harris.
Duke's stone carvings have provided a source of conjecture, amusement and even inspiration to the students, staff and visitors who have passed through this Gothic Wonderland. Photos of carvings are featured on the cover and throughout this program.
